"My my my, I want to thank you and your team for preparing such a comprehensive and outstanding bid document" Craig Carter, Executive Director, World Association of Veterinary Laboratory Diagnosticians

"Destination DC won the first bid we ever worked on with GIDN which sees 1000 delegates come to DC for an international conference. It is not just about the high quality leads, but it is easy to get support for bid development when we are extremely busy or help with setting up sales appointments for overseas sales missions. It is great to know I just have to request support and that I am confident what we need done, is getting done! Claire Etches, International Sales Manager Destination DC, USA
